

NORWAY IN LONDON

Organisations of interest to people living in and visiting London

EST. 1711 MAY 1887

Den Norske Klub was founded on the 17th of May 1887, and has been a focal point for the Norwegians in London ever since. The club is housed within the Naval and Military Club, the “In & Out”, at 4 St. James’s Square. The club hosts many events, including monthly club dinners with speakers, ladies’ lunches and cultural outings, Friday drinks, business forums, and golf days. Members and guests are welcome at all the club’s events. Members of DNK have access to the clubhouse and its facilities during the weekends. Further information about the club and the events calendar can be found on the website: www.dennorskeklub.co.uk For membership information contact the Club Secretary at secretary@dennorskeklub.co.uk or phone: +44 (0) 207 839 6242.

The Norwegian Church in London is the parish church for all the 8-10 000 Norwegians living in Greater London, in addition to tourists and seamen. The church is situated in Rotherhithe, close to the Thames. The church staff meet approximately 25 000 people every year at the various functions, the most important being the Sunday Service at 11am. We also visit people at work, in their homes and in port. We hold baptisms, confirmations, weddings and funeral services, but you are also welcome for an informal chat. To subscribe to our weekly email informing you about current events or our free monthly printed magazine, please send us a request on the below email. Our address is: 1.St.Olav's Square, Albion Street, Rotherhithe, London SE16 7JB. For more information: www.sjomannskirken.no/london email: london@sjomannskirken.no phone: +44 (0) 207 740 3900

Norwegian YWCA in London (KFUK-hjemmet) A very famous Norwegian chocolate has as its slogan “A small piece of Norway”. That’s what Norwegian YWCA also wants to be, a small piece of Norway in the centre of London. We are based in Holland Park and offer board and lodging at a reasonable price for Norwegians visiting or living in London. Students and young employed will get even better rates by signing a contract for at least twelve weeks. Norwegian YWCA in London was founded in 1908. We are based in an old Victorian building, some few yards away from the Notting Hill area and the famous sights of London. We have 44 beds and our guests are tourists and tenants on contract. The staff is Norwegian headed by general manager Mr. Tor-Jarle Larsen. We serve Norwegian food (dinner is included in the rate), homemade bread and cakes on Wednesdays and Sundays. You are more than welcome just to drop in for a visit at: 52 Holland Park, London W11 3RS. For more information: www.kfukhjemmet.org.uk email: kontor@kfukhjemmet.org.uk phone: +44 (0) 207 727 9346

Norwegian British Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) is the most important organisation for the Norwegian-British business community in the UK. NBCC is an independent non-profit organisation with approximately 700 members, including more than 100 Norwegian and British companies. NBCC was founded in 1906 and welcomes companies and individuals from Norway, the UK and other countries, who wish to be part of the Norwegian-British business community. NBCC's mission is to promote trade and investment between Norway and the UK, and to provide a professional and social arena for business people. NBCC provides business and networking opportunities and encourages dialogue and exchange of experiences between members. The Young Professionals (YP) is an active subdivision of NBCC, and is a professional and social networking environment for young business people under the age of 35 working or studying in London. Please visit our website for information about NBCC events and marketing opportunities: www.nbccuk.com. Contact us at: Norwegian-British Chamber of Commerce (NBCC), Charles House, 5 Lower Regent Street, London SW1Y 4RL, email: info@nbccuk.com phone: +44 (0) 207 930 0181

The Norwegian School in London When settling in a new city visiting The Norwegian School could ease the transition for both children and parents. In a friendly and supportive environment our qualified and committed staff offers a good level of education in mixed age groups for children age 3-16. The nursery caters well for children age 3-5 within a warm and nurturing environment. Education for grades 1-10 is according to the Norwegian National Curriculum and the school offers Norwegian Leaving Certificates. To meet the demand for English we also include four of five Cambridge “English as a Second Language” examinations within our curriculum. Parents actively support the school, and several groups of parents meet regularly for a variety of activities. The school is located in Wimbledon within easy reach of Central London. The school building is an old Victorian villa that has been extended and renovated to meet the needs of a modern school. A large lush garden with a tennis court and a new playground invites to a variety of activities for children of all ages. Feel free to contact us or stop by for a visit at: 28 Arterberry Road, London SW19 8AH. For more information: www.dnslondon.com email: mail@dnslondon.com phone: +44 (0) 208 947 6617